Monte Carlo Country Club to host Davis Cup quarterfinal

- Russian Fed Cup semifinal venue also confirmed -

The blockbuster Davis Cup by BNP Paribas quarterfinal between France and USA will be staged in the idyllic setting of the Monte Carlo Country Club, Roquebrune-Cap-Martin, France on 6-8 April. It’s the first time that France have played a Davis Cup tie at the venue, which will also host the Masters-1000 event a fortnight later.

France and USA have one of the oldest Davis Cup rivalries having first met in 1905. Since then, there have been a total of 15 meetings with USA edging the series 8-7. The most recent meeting in the 2008 quarterfinals witnessed a win for the American’s on home soil - only twice has a visiting team come away with the win.

The French team are looking for a third consecutive semifinal berth and with six players ranked inside the Top 50 captain Guy Forget certainly has plenty of depth at his disposal in what he has promised will be his final season at the helm. A potentially tricky away tie to Canada in the first round was navigated with relative ease in a 4-1 victory led by two singles victories from Jo-Wilfried Tsonga.

Having overcome a Switzerland team, which included both Roger Federer and Stanislas Wawrinka, on clay in Fribourg, has renewed the American optimism. It will be captain Jim Courier’s task to ensure that his players do not take a potentially stronger French team for granted. For more information visit www.daviscup.com and www.copadavis.com.

The ITF has also confirmed that the Fed Cup by BNP Paribas semifinal between Russia and Serbia will take place at the Sports Palace Megasport in Moscow on 21-22 April. The Russian Tennis Federation has also chosen for the tie to be played on clay, which marks the first occasion in six home ties that a surface other than hard court has been selected. Malaysia event launches 2012 ITF Junior Team Competitions

Qualifying events for August’s World Junior Tennis Finals in Prostejov, Czech Republic and September’s Junior Davis Cup and Junior Fed Cup by BNP Paribas Finals in Barcelona, Spain are being held on all continents in the first half of the year.

The first event was last week’s Asia/Oceania pre-qualifying for Junior Davis Cup, Junior Fed Cup and World Junior Tennis in Kuching, Malaysia. In the Junior Davis Cup competition Sri Lanka, Kazakhstan and Singapore will go through to the final qualifying event in Bendigo, Australia, while in the Junior Fed Cup event China, P.R., Malaysia and Vietnam are the three teams to go through to final qualifying. The World Junior Tennis event saw Kazakhstan and Philippines qualify for both the boys’ and girls’ final qualifying event, while Syria took the third qualifying spot in the boys’ event and Singapore in the girls’ event.

The full list of dates for the 2012 qualifying events of the ITF Junior Team Competitions are overleaf.

Canada and Chile secure BNP Paribas World Team Cup places

Canada booked their place in men’s World Group 2 and Chile secured their spot in the women’s World Group for the BNP Paribas World Team Cup in Seoul, Korea after both teams progressed from last week’s Americas qualification event in Mexico City.

Top seeds Canada defeated the host nation in the men's final thanks to singles victories from Philippe Bedard and Joel Dembe, who then combined in the doubles to give the North American side a 3-0 victory. It was a much closer affair in the women’s final with No. 1 seeds Chile avenging their round-robin defeat to Colombia and secure qualification. Angelica Bernal (COL) and Maria Antoineta Ortiz (CHI) reproduced their singles victories to force another decisive doubles rubber but this time it was the Chilean pairing of Francisca Mardones and Ortiz who got the better of Bernal and Johana Martinez to claim the victory.

This week Antalya, Turkey and Nairobi, Kenya, host the last two qualification events for Europe and Africa respectively. For more information visit www.itftennis.com/wheelchair.

Tennis Europe Senior Champs restructure

Tennis Europe has announced a restructuring of the organisation’s flagship European senior competitions, including the creation of a new European Senior Championships event.

The new championships will be open to European players only, and will cater to all 21 age categories. The event will become the most prestigious in Europe in terms of ranking points and the inaugural event will take place at the National Tennis Centre in Sofia, Bulgaria from 2-8 July. For more information visit www.tenniseurope.org.

Manisha Malhotra recognised

The ITF was pleased to learn that India’s Manisha Malhotra was presented with the World Trophy at the IOC’s 2012 Women and Sport Awards for her commitment to helping disadvantaged girls progress through sport. Malhotra represented India in Fed Cup from 1995-2004 and competed at the 2000 Sydney Olympics.

Francesco Ricci Bitti visits Paralympic Tennis venue

ITF President Francesco Ricci Bitti and Executive Vice President Juan Margets accompanied ITF Wheelchair Tennis Manager Mark Bullock on a site visit last week to Eton Manor, the venue for the London 2012 Paralympic Tennis Event.

While it was the latest site visit for Bullock and Margets to the newly completed venue at the north end of Olympic Park, it was the first time that the ITF President had seen the facilities that will host six wheelchair tennis medal events on 1-8 September.

The trio were given a guided tour of the venue by four-time Paralympian Jayant Mistry, Wheelchair Tennis Manager for LOCOG, while LOCOG also gave a presentation on the facilities.
